

Mr Ravindra Marathe, MD & CEO, Bank of Maharashtra administered Vigilance Pledge to the Executives and Staff of the Bank

Mr Ravindra Marathe, Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer, Bank of Maharashtra has administered Vigilance pledge to all Executives and Staff of the Bank. All the staff from 33 Zones of the Bank has joined the ceremony connected through Video Conferencing. Bank of Maharashtra is observing Vigilance week from 29th October to 5th November 2016 and as a part of the programme the pledge was given. Different activities based on the theme 'Public participation in promoting integrity and eradicating corruption' have been organised by the bank and the rural branches have been engaged in conduction of 'Gram-Sabha' involving common man of villages to create an awareness of the corruption free society. The oratory competitions have been organised for School and College students on subjects related to eradication of corruption. The Bank staffs are also taking 'On Line pledge' through the website. The street play competition has been organised for the Head Office staff of the bank to suggest innovative ideas to fight against corruption.

In the pledge function held at head office of the Bank, the Executive Director Mr. R. Athmaram and Mr R K Gupta were present. The General Managers Mr Nandkumar Pujari, Mr Narender Kabra, Mr M C Kulkarni, Mr R K Pandey, Mr Rajkiran Bhoir, Mr Manoj Biswal and Mr R H Phadnis were present on the occasion.