Pune, August 26, 2016: Shri. Narendra Kabra, General Manager, IT, Bank of Maharashtra & Sudhakar Dhodapkar, with Suresh Nangare from Retirees of Bank of Maharashtra presented two cheques worth Rs. 21 lakhs to NAAM foundation at Bank of Maharashtra's head office at Lokmangal, Pune. General managers of the Bank Shri Rajkiran Bhoir, M. C. Kulkarni, and Manoj Biswal were present on the occasion. The foundation started by Nana Patekar and Makarand Anaspure, works towards the betterment of farmers in the drought-prone areas of Marathwada and Vidarbha in the Maharashtra.

The first cheque of Rs. 11 lakhs was a result of the collective personal contribution by employees and the ex-employees of the bank. The second cheque worth Rs. 10 lakhs was presented by the bank to extend their support to the noble cause that NAAM foundation is working towards.

Shri. Sushil Muhnot, Chairman and Managing Director and Shri R K Gupta Executive Director, Bank of Maharashtra decided to match the amount that the bank's staff wanted to contribute for the collective-noble efforts of the staff.

“We could sense that the zeal and positivity in the office had doubled after the CMD’s announcement. It seems like we have struck the right cord and believe that our decision has encouraged them in surpassing their set target of Rs. 10 lakhs, within three months. We congratulate all of them as they have taken great efforts in getting the staff involved, connecting with the ex-staff and encouraging them too towards contributing for the noble cause. We are honored to have such people working for us, who believe in uplifting the society at large.” said Shri Rajkiran Bhoir, General Manager, Resource and Planning, Bank of Maharashtra

Shri. Makarand Anaspure, Co founder NAAM foundation expressed his gratitude and mentioned that each of their efforts would help in bringing smile drought victims. He further requested bank to take initiative to hold Weekly Bazar where farmers can sell their produce to consumers
