

01/06/2011

Press Release

Bank of Maharashtra is awarded "Reserve Bank Rajbhasha Shield" for bilingual house magazine (Mahabank Pragati) for the year 2009-10 at the hands of Dr. D. Subbarao, Governor, RBI in a function held at RBI in Mumbai on 01-06-2011.

Shri A S Bhattacharya, Chairman & Managing Director, Bank of Maharashtra has received the award in the function in which Dr. Subir Gokarn & Dr. K. C. Chakrabarty, Deputy Governors, Reserve Bank of India have also attended.

Reserve Bank of India organizes the competition annually for public sector banks/ financial institutions.

Bank of Maharashtra is always in the forefront for implementing Official Language policy.

The Bank is convener of SLBC and also Town Official Language Implementation Committees (TOLIC) of Mumbai, Pune and Solapur.

Photo Caption: Shri A.S. Bhattacharya, Chairman & Managing Director, Bank of Maharashtra receiving the "Reserve Bank Rajbhasha Shield" for bilingual house magazine (Mahabank Pragati) for the year 2009-10 at the hands of Dr. D. Subbarao, Governor. Also seen are Dr. Subir Gokarn & Dr. K. C. Chakrabarty, Deputy Governors, Reserve Bank of India and Shri R.H. Kulkarni, General Manager & Shri Harsh Kant Sharma, Chief Manager (Rajbhasha) of Bank of Maharashtra.