2	33	6.2	Annexure A Technical Specifications	Intel Core i3 4130 / AMD A10 5700 processor or higher	For Intel Core i3-4130=1280 and AMD A10 5700=796. Based on the above scores the Corei3-4130 based PCs are competing and compared against 37% lower performing Desktop PCs based on AMD A10-5700 Processors. As measured by Sysmark 2014 overall scores this creates a highly non-competitive environment for prospective bidders to quote with Intel Based products. We suggest the bank to select the processor on the basis of Performance Benchmarks Industry consortium leads BAPCO, Sysmark 2014 or Spec_cpu 2006. The A10 5700 is almost 2 generations old	Intel Core i3 4130 / AMD A10 6790 processor or higher
3	12	2.16	Make, Models and Part Number of the Equipments	It is mandatory to provide make, model and part number of all equipment and their subcomponents as asked in the technical specification. The offer may not be evaluated and/or will be liable for rejection in case of non-submission or partial submission of make, model and part numbers of the items offered. Please note that substituting this information by just brand name is not enough. Bidder may provide part number during PDI	Make and Model number is always provided but sometimes it may not be possible to furnish Part Numbers of all the individual components/subcomponents of the system supplied. This is also because of the fact the subcomponents(like Memory/HDD etc) may be from different OEMs for the same lot. Request Bank to clarify more elaborately on this point	Bidder may submit part numbers during PDI
4	22/23	4.4	Pre-Dispatch Inspection	Every single inspection will comprise of a minimum 500 desktops at a time.	In the event of the Order being Split among 3 vendors(L1/2/3) the total quantity for the L3 vendor may not be more than 500 units . Additionally it is also note sure if the bank will releae the PO for the full quantity in One go or in phases. Can we assume that for any lot less than 500 unit bank will not perform PDI? We request bank to clarify on the same.	If order is less than 500, then full order units will be required during PDI
