Resurgent ESG Services Private Limited Assigns ESG Rating to Bank of Maharashtra

- Bank of Maharashtra has been assigned an ESG score of 66.30 by Resurgent ESG Services, a subsidiary of Resurgent India
- The rating was conducted using Resurgent ESG's proprietary framework, combining data and direct engagement.
- The rating supports Bank of Maharashtra's ongoing efforts to enhance its ESG practices.

Delhi/NCR, June 5, 2025 - Resurgent ESG Services Private Limited (Resurgent ESG), a wholly owned subsidiary of Resurgent India Limited and a SEBI-registered Category-II ESG Rating Provider (ERP), has assigned an ESG rating to Bank of Maharashtra. The ESG score assigned to the Bank of Maharashtra stands at 66.30.

Bank of Maharashtra, one of the country's leading public sector banks, has been evaluated through Resurgent ESG's rigorous and comprehensive ESG assessment framework. The rating reflects the bank's current ESG profile, measuring the impact of its business activities on the environment and society, as well as the strength of its governance practices.

Commenting on the development, Mr. Sanjeet Kumar, Director of Resurgent ESG Services Private Limited, said, "Our ESG ratings are designed to empower organisations to measure their progress, enhance their ESG frameworks, and align their strategies with India's sustainability objectives. Robust ESG practices are now fundamental for effective risk management and enduring value creation. With these ratings, we aim to support organisations in making informed decisions as they move towards a low-carbon and responsible future."

This rating will serve as a valuable tool for Bank of Maharashtra and its stakeholders, enabling informed decision-making and supporting the bank's ongoing ESG journey.

Resurgent ESG's rating methodology goes beyond publicly available disclosures, incorporating direct engagement with key stakeholders within the rated entity. This approach ensures that the ratings take into account both quantitative and qualitative factors, providing investors and market participants with a reliable view of the entity's sustainability profile and future outlook.
